Character Reference

The _____ family has submitted an application to our homeschool support group, Dikaios Christian Educators Association. We are a Christian organization that seeks to honor the Lord in all we do. The Dikaios Board of Directors has established Christian character as a criteria for acceptance into our home schooling group. We would like to verify that the undersigned actively lives a life that displays the character of Christ. Thank you for completing this form on their behalf.

1. Please briefly describe your relationship with the family. How long have you known them? In what capacity?

2. To the best of your knowledge, have both parents professed faith in Jesus Christ, and do they seek to lead their family according to biblical principles?

3. How would you characterize this family's tendencies in terms of timeliness, fulfillment of commitments, and willingness to serve others?

4. Have you ever been in a church, co-op, or other group endeavor with this family? If yes, can you share whether this experience was largely positive or negative? Feel free to expound as necessary.

5. Does this family attend a local church regularly?
